

Bay County Fair & Youth Exposition
Policy & Procedure

CODE OF CONDUCT
Policy 2-2

13. Members provide an environment that encourages members to constantly improve the health, safety, productivity and profitability of the organization. Members strive to create a place where volunteers enjoy working, recognizing that highly motivated people are the organization's most productive and dependable asset.
14. Members protect and use assets of the organization in a fair and responsible way. Assets of the organization include, but are not limited to: volunteers, equipment, financial resources, services, and information.
15. Members strive to provide the highest quality entertainment and services, working for constant improvement of quality in all areas of the organization.
16. Members maintain confidentiality of all records in their care and possession including information about: customers, vendors, volunteers and other members.
17. Members exhibit high standards of personal integrity and professional conduct.
18. Member will sign Form 11-2 acknowledging receipt of the Code of Conduct.